Cryptidology

A Concerto for Piano and Orchestra

Joseph Dangerfield (b. 1977)

For Ann DuHamel
Premiered May 8, 2027 by Ann DuHamel, piano, and the Bemidji Symphony Orchestra, Beverly Everett, conductor.

COMPOSER'S NOTE

Cryptidology is a work that represents some of the stories and folklore of my native West Virginia. Each of its movements draws on a different legend from the mountains and river towns of my home state.

The first movement, Mothman Commeth, is an exploration in timbre and color built around the Mothman legend — a seven-foot, red-eyed, winged creature said to have appeared during the collapse of the Silver Bridge in Point Pleasant, West Virginia, in 1967. In Appalachian folklore, its appearance is taken as an omen of disaster to come.

The second movement, Zona's Lullaby, is drawn from the story of Elva Zona Heaster Shue, who was murdered by her husband in 1897. Her death was ruled natural until her mother testified that Zona's spirit had appeared to her and revealed that her neck had been broken. The exhumation that followed confirmed it, making this the only known case in U.S. history in which testimony from a spirit helped convict a murderer.

Cryptidology was written for my friend, the pianist Ann DuHamel. Her artistry and our friendship shaped this piece from its earliest sketches, and it is dedicated to her with deep gratitude.

ABOUT THE COMPOSER

Joseph Dangerfield has lived and worked professionally in Italy, Germany, Russia, China, Holland, and New York.

He is the recipient of many awards and recognitions, including the Aaron Copland Award, the Indianapolis Chamber Orchestra's Composition Prize, the Henry and Parker Pelzer Prize for Excellence in Composition, and the Young and Emerging Composers Award. He was a Fulbright Scholar to the Russian Federation and the Netherlands, where he served as composer-in-residence with the Ensemble Studio New Music at the famed Moscow Conservatory, and lectured at Maastricht Conservatorium. He has been a resident in the Leighton Studios of the prestigious Banff Centre in Alberta, Canada, and the Yaddo Colony in New York. Recordings of his works are available on the Albany Records label, and his music is published by American Concert Editions.

Over the past several years his creative voice has garnered much attention, with performances of his works throughout the United States and abroad. American presenters include Carnegie Hall, the Eastman School of Music, Boston Conservatory, the San Francisco New Music Festival, and the Society for Electro-Acoustic Music, among others. His instrumental and chamber compositions have also been performed at such international venues as the Moscow Conservatory, the Vienna Konzerthaus, the Conservatoire à rayonnement régional de Paris, the Frankfurter KünstlerKlub, the Conservatorio di Milano, and in Cairo, Egypt.

Originally trained as a pianist, Dangerfield is also active as a performer and conductor throughout the United States. He has conducted chamber and orchestral concerts of music both new and from the canon in New York, Vienna, and Prague, among other cities, and has served on the faculty of West Virginia University, the University of Florida, McNeese State University, and Coe College. He currently resides in Pittsburgh with his wife, Ami, and their three children.
